4. [ ] Met with Mr. Slatinshek, on the staff of the House Armed Services Committee, concerning the two cases on which the Committee had received a report of possible defection. (The Committee staff had referred to Defense an anonymous post card received by Mr. Kilday which stated that two more NSA employees were expected to defect.) I informed Slatinshek of my understanding that the Department of Defense was contacting the Committee with regard to [ ] and was indicating that the other individual, [ ] was employed by this Agency. I told him that [ ] case had been thoroughly reviewed by the Agency and that the Agency was continuing his employment. Slatinshek said this information was sufficient for his purposes. The Committee had referred the matter to Defense as a routine check on the correspondence.
